TOUR OVERVIEW

Depending on your mode of transportation, arrive at Srinagar either by flight or road. Settle into your chosen accommodation, whether it's a houseboat on Dal Lake or a hotel overlooking the beautiful valley. Start your exploration with a relaxing Shikara ride on Dal Lake. Admire the floating gardens, intricate houseboats, and vibrant local life. Explore the unique floating gardens known as "Rad" and interact with local vendors selling flowers, fruits, and handicrafts. Enjoy a serene evening on the Dal Lake, savoring the picturesque sunset views. Begin your day with a visit to the Shankaracharya Temple, dedicated to Lord Shiva. Located atop a hill, the temple offers panoramic views of Srinagar. Explore the renowned Mughal Gardens, including Nishat Bagh and Shalimar Bagh. These beautifully landscaped gardens boast terraced lawns, cascading fountains, and colorful flower beds. Dive into the bustling markets of Srinagar, such as Lal Chowk and Residency Road, to shop for traditional Kashmiri handicrafts like Pashmina shawls, carpets, and paper mache artifacts. Indulge in authentic Kashmiri cuisine for lunch, featuring dishes like Rogan Josh, Gushtaba, and Wazwan. Attend a traditional Kashmiri music and dance performance in the evening to immerse yourself in the rich cultural heritage of the region. Embark on a scenic drive to Gulmarg, a renowned hill station located about 50 kilometers from Srinagar. Experience the world's second-highest operating cable car, the Gulmarg Gondola, which offers breathtaking views of the snow-capped peaks of the Himalayas. Explore Gulmarg's lush meadows, indulge in activities like horse riding, trekking, and golfing, depending on your interests. Return to Srinagar in the evening and spend your last night soaking in the tranquil ambiance of Dal Lake or exploring the local markets for souvenirs. Depending on your departure time, you may have some free time in the morning to explore any missed attractions or indulge in last-minute shopping. Check out from your accommodation and proceed to the airport or your onward journey with fond memories of your Srinagar getaway.
